Harding Announces Intention to Force the Completion of Pending Measures in Congress Before March 4.

Opposes Extra Session

By GRAFTON WILCOX. Omaha Hes Leased Wire.

Washington, Nov. 15 .- All the powor and resources at the administration's command will be brought to bear against the democrats and insurgents in a drive to clean up the legislative program before March 4 and diminate the necessity for any extra session of the newly elected congress. President Harding told senators she conferred with him today that was absolutely determined not to ie a call for an extra session of he new congress after March 4. He believes that the government can function satisfactorily without the aid of the new congress until December,

To Push Ship Subsidy.

Furthermore, Mr. Harding made it clear that his demand for passage of the ship subside is not a mere gesture. He is thoroughly in earnest. He be-Heyes that congress, controlled as it is now by an overwhelming republican majority, will have ample time to nut through the ship subsidy bill and all the annual appropriation bills of withstanding the prospect of a fillbuster by republican insurgents and democrats.
